COMOR-D-2/8

27 March 1962

SUBJECT: Highest Priority National and Military Objectives in South and Central China and Hainan Island

1. This memorandum contains information on the question posed at the Special Group meeting of 15 March. The minutes of that meeting contained the following sentence: "The question of another South China mission will await assessment of the results of the last on []"

2. The preliminary interpretation of the photography obtained from [] has been accomplished. It is understood that [] had been restricted by the Special Group to the area north of North Vietnam roughly west of 114° east and south of 31° north. Because of weather and other operational factors, many of the priority targets in this area were not satisfactorily covered, including significant stretches of rail lines serving North Vietnam and most of the border area. Accordingly, the purposes for which the [] was approved were not met adequately. Those purposes were to provide the U.S. military with information essential

[redacted] (which had not yet been reported at the time

25X1C

3. Since [redacted] was run, another TACKLE mission

25X1C

[redacted] has been accomplished. [redacted] did not cover any of the

25X1C

25X1C

targets within the area prescribed for the planning [redacted] However, it did cover targets east-northeast of that area which are relevant for military contingency planning and for an appraisal of Communist Chinese logistical buildup against Southeast Asia.

4. For planning purposes COMOR submits at Tab B

recommended targets for additional TACKLE reconnaissance in South China. This list embraces both targets approved by the Special Group and planned for but not covered by [redacted] and several targets which CINCPAC has submitted as a result of further analysis of the area.
